

Water for Health

Activity 3

Make a list of illnesses that young people get where you live.

How are these treated? Are there things that they can do to prevent getting sick?

Do you think the young people in West Africa have access to these things?

Research some of the common illnesses that affect children in the developing world, such as malaria, tuberculosis and diarrhea. How are these preventable?