Status:	Full time, Permanent

About You

Are you passionate about equal rights for all children and equality for girls? Can you see yourself being an integral member of a team that works towards transforming lives in developing countries?

Do you have experience in international development management? Have you managed a diverse portfolio of grants, including those of Global Affairs Canada? Are you a trusted team member with a collaborative working style? Have you been able to engage with internal and external stakeholders to deliver high quality grant implementation?

The Position

- Lead and support Plan International's Country Offices especially in Latin America, but not limited to, through the full cycle of project management including project planning and start-up, implementation and routine monitoring, development of annual work plans and budgets, and project close out in line with donor requirements.
- Manage regular communications with Plan International Country Officers to foster strong relationships and ensure quality implementation of projects.
- Create quality and timely narrative and financial reports for donors by working in close collaboration with Country Offices, Technical Advisors, and Compliance Managers.
- Work collaboratively with Compliance Managers to review and oversee project budgets, forecasts, and donor financial reports inclusive of variance analysis.
- Collaborate with Technical Advisors to develop and roll-out high-quality training and activity plans, gender equality tools and systems, and monitoring and evaluation (M&E) plans including periodic evaluations to ensure program quality.
- Participate in the development of funding proposals as required.

What does success look like?

- The portfolio of projects will demonstrate strong performance and results, program quality, and compliance to donor requirements.
- Positive and functional relationships are built and maintained within Plan International Canada, Plan International's Country Offices, donors, partners and other stakeholders.
- Projects include strong strategies to advance gender equality and thematic priorities, M&E systems and evidence of results, and sustainability.
- Use of efficient project management systems and tools to facilitate ongoing grant management and compliance oversight.

As our ideal candidate you will have:

- Ability to function fluently in Spanish and English is essential, and fluency in French is strongly preferred.
- An aptitude for working with cross-functional teams and delivering results in a matrix environment and amongst remote teams.
- A proven track record in delivery of complex international development programs, some of which should have been gained overseas.
- Direct experience managing projects funded by Global Affairs Canada.
- Ability to establish priorities in a time-sensitive environment, meet deadlines and ensure high quality deliverables with strong attention to detail.
- A passion for mission-drive work and personal values aligned with those of Plan International Canada's organizational values.
- Master's or post graduate degree in international development or equivalent professional experience.
- Ability to support preparation of funding proposals as per donor requirements.

Why a career with Plan International Canada?
